

Listen Alaska

NOW AVAILABLE....Listen Alaska! Download digital audio books and NOW MUSIC to your personal device of choice any-time, day or night. All you need is a library card with the Cordova Public Library! Downloads are available to your personal PC, laptop, PDA, smartphone, IPOD or MP3 player. While your library offers a wide selection of Audio books to check out from Cordova, Listen Alaska provides us with a way to expand our offerings immensely.

Sponsored by the Alaska Library Network, participating libraries pay a fee to be included and allowed access. Currently there are 15 libraries in the state involved with ListenAlaska. The directions to get started are easy and the staff at the Cordova Public Library have created a take-with you brochure to walk you through the process step by step. Once you're ready to go the selections are endless. Every genre you can imagine is available to peruse including materials on Foreign Language to study. There are lots of self-help non fiction materials; books for young adults and even younger early readers.

Music is a new addition to the access page and the growing list includes everything from blues to choral to classical to electronica. The materials you 'check out' are available to you for a two week period.

If you would like to try it out—ask the staff at the library for the Introductory Brochure and your user name and password. Then if you run into any difficulties or have questions, please don't hesitate to ask or let us know what problems you encountered. We're learning the process as well and would be pleased to hear what our patrons think—good or bad so

JUST ONE MORE CHAPTER.....PLEASE!!

Kids ages ~7 to ~11 are welcome to join Anna on Friday afternoons right after school for a special chapter book reading. We provide a snack and a cozy corner while kids can listen to a series of chapter books, meet new authors and learn about different genres of books for that older reader. A great way to slow down after a busy week of school and keep reading!

Trick or Treat for BOOKS!

Closed Sunday and Monday 424-6667

What we're working on ... this fall is the Non-Fiction collection of the library. It's been a long time since this area has had a good overhaul. We're shelf-shifting (moving) the books and as we do, we're assessing their place in the collection. Are they old and out-dated? Are they too specific or not specific enough? Do we have other books that cover this subject? These are all questions we ask ourselves as we do an overview of the collection. And we all work together on it with a system that makes sure it's a collective review of the library!

You should see now a lot of new books on home improvement; home repair; house design; house building and innovative uses of energy. We also have received all of the 2008 medal winning, award winning books for Young Adults; Juvenile; and the youngest readers of all.

Watch soon for new DVDs just in time for those cold winter nights!
